

BE A VOICE FOR LIFE

"When I married my American coach, Darrell Smith, I was one of Britain's brightest Olympic hopes — a serious contender for the gold medal in the 400-meter hurdles and in position to receive multiple endorsements. However, six months later, right before the Olympic Trials, I found out I was pregnant. The pressure to abort was enormous; but this line from the Scriptures kept running through my head: 'What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul?' Then I knew: abortion was not an option. And with that decision, came peace." (Natasha "Tasha" Danvers-Smith)

Every preborn baby is worth more than anything the world can offer. The Lord needs people to proclaim that truth — people like Tasha, people like you.
