BODY COPY:

Would you like to earn money at home? You can. Even better, you don't need to go it alone: You can get the valuable advice of your very own business consultant for no more than the price of a large pizza.

Donna Partow, a 20-year home-based business owner and best-selling author, has written Making Money from Home: How to Create a Successful Home-Based Business to help people like you benefit from her expertise and experience.

With Donna's step-by-step instructions in this thorough and practical how-to guide, you'll ...

- Determine what type of business is right for you
- Create a business plan
- Identify what legal issues to expect
- Master time management skills
- Find out how to use the Internet effectively
- And more ...

Starting your own business takes a workable idea and some courage. Maintaining it takes hard work and sound advice. With Donna's help, you can succeed -- and enjoy the satisfaction of creating a profitable business that reflects your unique talents and values.

In these tough economic times, a home-based business could be the answer you've been looking for!
