Would you like to have something extra-special in your stocking this Christmas?

You can . . . with Focus on the Family's "12 Days of Christmas Contest." We're giving away Nintendo Wii gaming systems, gift cards, Focus on the Family® resources, and so much more. There are 3 contests per day—36 contests in all—and more than 100 prizes!

Everyone's eligible to participate, and it's easy to sign up:

Visit the Family Room at FocusOnTheFamily.com/contest –OR– the kiosk here in the Focus on the Family Bookstore. You'll be notified by e-mail when each contest starts.

When your daily contest e-mail arrives, you'll be asked to find the "word of the day"—which, depending on the contest, can be found by visiting one of Focus on the Family's Twitter pages or by watching a short product video clip. Once you find the "word of the day," return to the Family Room and enter it into the contest box.

If you're selected as a winner, you'll be notified immediately. The contests will start at various times throughout the day, so be sure to visit the Family Room every day for a list of contest start times. (While there, you can also check out some of the things Focus on the Family is doing to strengthen families around the world.)

You could win some great prizes for Christmas, so sign up today!
